Sorvino to leave 'Law'

By ELIZABETH JENSEN
of New York Daily News

Paul Sorvino is leaving the cast of NBC's "Law & Order" to devote more time to his opera career.

Sorvino had asked the producers to change his shooting schedule because being outdoors in the cold was affecting him vocally, but when that proved unworkable, it was decided he would leave, sometime in late fall. Veteran actor Jerry Orbach ("Promises, Promises," "Prince of the City") will take over Sorvino's place.

BIG EAST Football Regional Network

Dear Joe:

This is to acknowledge that WTMV-TV has been, for three consecutive years, the BIG EAST Football Network's affiliate in the Tampa-St. Petersburg television market. In each of those seasons, WTMV-TV has carried half or more of the Network's telecasts.

I must note also that we do our homework before contracting with stations to carry telecasts. For any prospective affiliate, we check the Nielsen reports to gauge its coverage area. Here is what we know about WTMV-TV:

Based on its meter sample and rating diary responses, Nielsen estimates that, in a 4-week period, WTMV-TV is viewed at one time or another by 632,000 different households.*

At the time this rating report was produced, Nielsen estimated that, in Polk County, there were 161,410 homes with television sets.

Based on this (and earlier) Nielsen data, it was plain to us that WTMV-TV's coverage extends substantially beyond Polk County.

We appreciate your bringing BIG EAST Football to viewers in the Tampa-St. Petersburg TV market these past three seasons.

Cordially,

John Reilly
VP-Research

* Nielsen Station Index (NSI) report, November 1992 survey period, for Tampa-St. Petersburg DMA. Estimate is the DMA 4-week cumulative audience, for the Sunday-Saturday 7A-1A daypart.

Dear Joe,

I just wanted thank you for the exposure your station offers the artists I represent in the Tampa/Sarasota market. Over the years we have used your video programs to highlight upcoming appearances of our artists and have found your support to be very beneficial. Your support of our artist's videos has also worked to impact sales and radio airplay in the Tampa/Sarasota market. Without your support we would definitely feel a void in this market.
